THE CITY OF NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND HAS UNDERGONE A RECLAMATION EFFORT VERY SIMILAR TO THE NEW BEDFORD ONE. ON OUR COVER IS THE VERY BEAUTIFUL SPIRE OF TRINITY CHURCH EMERGING FROM DWELLINGS BUILT IN THE 1700'S AND EARLY 1800'S THAT HAD DEGENERATED OVER THE YEARS INTO A SLUM DISTRICT THAT RIVALED ANY SUCH DISTRICT IN THE COUNTRY. NOW, OUT OF THAT LOW, THE OLD HOMES HAVE ONCE AGAIN COME BACK TO THE BEAUTY AND GRACE THAT WAS THEIR ORIGINAL CONDITION AND THE WHARF SECTION HAS BECOME THE FOCAL POINT FOR A COMPLETELY REVITALIZED AREA THAT IS NOT ONLY HISTORIC BUT A LIVING AREA OF GREAT CHARM.

SIGHT ALONG THE POINT OF THE 1700 BUILT HOME AT RIGHT AND YOU WILL DISCOVER A STRANGE PERSPECTIVE. YOUR EYES ARE O.K. - IT'S THE WALL THAT BULGES ABOUT A FOOT OUT OF LINE WITH THE WEIGHT OF ITS AGE. STILL, THE FACADE IS WELL KEPT AND THE BUILDING IS OCCUPIED SIGNIFICANTLY BY A LOCAL OPTOMETRIST WHO DOUBTLESS DOES A GREAT IMPULSE BUSINESS FROM PASSERSBY.

First of all, the Virgin Islands do not (as reported in the article) start 90 miles from Florida. They lie about 1150 miles from Florida. As a matter of fact the V.I. are pretty near the same distance east of Florida as they are south of Mattapoisett.

And to make 1150 miles, most of it into the teeth of the northeast trades in a flat bottom houseboat! Somebody's gotta be kidding!

A while back I delivered a 65 foot off-shore crew boat from Louisiana to the Virgin Islands, and it was a trip to remember. The seas were always 20 feet or so when you're in deep water. They come at you relentlessly and you are darn glad that you have an able and reliable hull and power plant under you. And that's when the weather is good. Then, the seas get bigger, maybe 30 feet and you know you shouldn't be there at all. That's in an able off shore crew boat.

In a houseboat? I doubt that the houseboat can take a 6 foot sea and survive.

Well, pessimist that I am when it comes to a boat more suitable for Mary's Pond than an ocean voyage, I just do not think that houseboat will ever get there on its

Houseboat Progress

(Courtesy of Sue Gillum)

The houseboat Ignacius and the sailboat Chesie which left from the Mattapoisett float last Sunday (11/23) expect, weather permitting, to be somewhere off the coast of New Jersey after one week of cruising.

From their first port, Newport, Captain Brad Gillum called and invited friends of the crew to a meal on the SS Newport. On the following day the two boats had a good run from Newport to Stonington, Conn.

The navigator, Bill Sullivan, reports that Tuesday and Wednesday were slow going because of radio problems and bad weather. A well wisher in Olde Lyme made life easier for both boats by accepting the faulty radio

The crew of both boats celebrated Thanksgiving with homemade beef stew made by cook Brian Rose. Dan Dunn, crew of the sailboat, said the longest run yet - 47 miles - made Thanksgiving a real holiday.

In his most recent communication, Capt. Brad Gillum reported they plan to spend the night at a Marina in Manhasset, New York before traveling through New York City. The two boats will cruise down the East River right through the heart of the "Big Apple". The Captain estimates that one week into their voyage to the Virgin Islands the two vessels would be off the shore of New Jersey.

Concert & Wassail Party

Another tradition of the Christmas season takes place at 3:00 p.m. December 14th in the Old Rochester Senior High School Auditorium when Conductor John Pandolfi raises his baton to lead the Regional Symphonic Band in their Christmas Concert.

Featured this year will be a brass quintet consisting of Kenneth Wilbur and Toby Monte, Trumpets; Karen Buckley and William Kingswood, Trombones; and Todd Hassett, Tuba. The band will play the Nutcracker Suite and other numbers reminding us of the Christmas season. They will ask the audience to "sing along" with a few carols and end with Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus".

Following the concert the Board of Directors invites the audience and band members to a Wassail Party held in the school cafeteria. This is their way of saying "Thank You" to the many friends and supporters of the band.

Season ticketholders are asked to be there early. Individual tickets will be available at the door or in advance at the Mattapoisett or Seaport Pharmacies in Mattapoisett, and the Bookstall or Marion

ORR FALL SPORTS WRAP-UP

by Alan Worden

The football team was the last squad to finish their season. They had a successful year with a 7-3 record. This year's efforts were a fine improvement over last year's record of 1-8-1. Although the team did not make it to the state's they deserve a big hand for a truly fine season.

The soccer team also had a tremendous season with an over-all record of 15-1 and a division 3 championship with a 10-0-0 record. The team was eligible for the state's after winning 70 percent of the games they played. However, the team lost to Sandwich and closed the season for the booters. A truly remarkable season for a very talented team.

The cross country team ended their season with a 5-3 league record. Coach Eddy pointed out that his team was very young with only 1 senior and mostly sophomores and freshmen and that the season was a big surprise. He was very pleased with the team effort as well as some hidden individual talents possessed by some of his younger runners.

The volleyball team had a tremendous season. The team ended with a 16-0-0 overall record. The team did go to the state's and won the semi-finals and advanced to the finals where they lost and finished second in the entire state, even after playing the biggest high school in the country. And, naturally the girls did end as champs in their division.

The field hockey team ended the 1980 season with a record of 6-4-3. The girls went to the state's but unfortunately like the soccer team they could not advance. The girls, did, however, end with a co-championship in their pockets.

Both games in that division were played at Hetland Ice Rink in New Bedford.

Both of the Squirt games were played at the Coliseum in Yarmouth.

In a non-league competition at the Yarmouth Coliseum, the PeeWee II Division team, Vel's Kodiaks, defeated Nauset Division II by a score of 3-1. Jay Vincent scored two of those goals with one assist from a blue-line shot from Shannon Hawks and the other from Tim Drew. Chris White

FIELD WALK - DECEMBER 6th

An excursion through the woods during any season can be a delightful and educational experience for the senses. The winter season has its own offerings for those willing to listen and observe and appreciate the aroma of woodsy pine. Winter birds add new song to the cold air, and exciting flashes of color to the brown December landscape. The smell of snow, the taste of teaberries, the sounds of Titmice and Chickadees, and the blending of Evergreens and Cardinals make Winter a very special season. The Children's Museum will have a "Senses in Winter" Walk on Saturday, December 6th, at 10:00 a.m., free and open to all ages.

SATURDAY PROGRAM

As a treat for everyone's Christmas spirit, the Children's Museum will begin its holiday season with its traditional Pine Cone Crafts, which will be held December 6th here in the barn of the Museum. Mrs. Gerry Squire will be on hand with her boxes of materials and all sizes and shapes of pine cones for making Christmas Tree ornaments and various colorful house decorations. The program will begin at 2:00 p.m. and is open to 5 year olds and up. Most important: please call to register, the program is limited to 30 children.

BIRD SEED SALE

Just a reminder! Don't forget pick-up day for ordered Bird Seed is December 6th between 9 and 4 in the back parking lot of the Museum Outdoors. Craft Exhibit Crafts of the Commonwealth, an exhibition of craft works by the recipients of and the finalists for the 1980 fellowships awarded by the Artists Foundation of Boston, will be on display at Southeastern Massachusetts University from December 8 through January 31, 1981. The free exhibit will be held in the SMU Gallery located in the Visual and Performing Arts Building (Group VI).

The show will feature works by 14 persons: seven recipients and seven finalists. The craftspersons were selected from among 248 of the state's creative artists.

Harvey Goldman, an SMU assistant professor of design, was a finalist in the fellowship competition. His dark earth-toned wall forms and standing pieces will be included in the show. Goldman received a 1980 National Endowment for the Arts "Emerging Craftsman" Award.

The other Massachusetts artists which comprise the exhibition have displayed their works at several well-known galleries, museums, and schools in the northeast and across the United States.

Crafts of the Commonwealth is a cooperative effort by the Berkshire Museum, 238 students, faculty and staff to participate in the 4th annual Great American Smokeout on November 20th. Each participant had to promise not to smoke or help a smoker not to smoke for one day. The Health Services students spent a week preparing for the event by making posters, writing speeches, passing out literature, viewing movies and encouraging students and faculty to stop smoking for one day. All the work was worth it; 238 people pledged not to smoke on November 20. The Health Services Department is a fairly new course of study at Old Colony, this being its second year. The program has a twofold purpose. Upon graduation the students are trained to be nursing aides, and have received a medical background and introduction to the other 200 job opportunities in the health field.

Personal Growth Workshop

A personal development workshop entitled "Lifelong Personal Growth" will be held at Southeastern Massachusetts University on Wednesday, December 17.

Sponsored by SMU's Program for the Person and Institute on Health and Long Life, the workshop will take place from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the south lounge of the SMU Library.

Personal growth is a life-long learning process which can be accelerated once people become aware of their potentiality. This two-hour workshop will be a sharing of ideas for people of all ages who want to enhance the natural process of personal growth.

Dr. Milton Young of the SMU education department will be the instructor. Young played an active role in developing the Program for the Person at SMU, and he has run several programs for the Institute on Health and Long Life. He stresses that this program is for those who have attended previous personal growth workshops and for those who are new to this activity.

Persons interested in attending the workshop are requested to complete a registration form and return it no later than December 10. Registration forms may be obtained by calling the Institute at 994-9681 or 636-8768, or by stopping
